

David Applin

General Assistant

YMSGroup

Instruments

Guitar

Biography

After enrolling as a student at YMS at the age of nine, David joined the admin team in 2015. Initially starting lessons behind the drum kit, David's interests soon swung towards the electric guitar, inspired by his favourite rock legends such as Jimi Hendrix, Jimmy Page and Stevie Ray Vaughn. Although his love for music still stays with him, David hopes to one day become a successful journalist and is currently studying a Bachelor's degree in Multimedia Journalism at Canterbury Christchurch University. After his graduation, David plans to continue his studies and hopes to complete a Master degree in investigative journalism.

Interests and Hobbies

David is a keen foodie! He loves trying different flavours from across the globe and trying to replicate them in his own kitchen. As well as his love for exotic food, David is an avid motorsport fan and has an interest in radio production.

Something you won't know

During his first year at University, David was the Independent Radio News runner up student journalist of the year, for his radio piece about the Norwegian prison system.

Role at YMS

As a general assistant here at YMS David helps with the running of the music school. His daily tasks include customer service, stock management, school maintenance and much more!

Contact

Dapplin@yourmusicschool.co.uk

