

Jason McCluskey

Drum Tutor

Instruments

Drums.

Biography

Jason was born in Dover in 1964. His early years saw him discovering many parts of the world, moving to America, Singapore and then back to London. He is happily married with two children. Jason has been playing drums on a professional level for the last 30 years in numerous styles including jazz, funk, rock, fusion and much more. Within these genres and others, Jason has performed throughout the world with countless successful artists, which include Greg Nesto, Steve Hunt and Christopher Godin. He is currently performing with The Westcoast Soulstars, who have supported major artists such as Chic, Sister Sledge and Shalama. Jason has also performed on cruise ships from America to Canada, with good friend and fellow YMS colleague Lawrie Bolton.

Interests and Hobbies

Jason likes spending time with his family and friends enjoying good food and wine. He is also an avid football fan supporting Manchester United.

Something you won't know

Jason has once lost one of the lenses from his glasses over the top of The Empire State building in New York

Professional Performance Work

Jason has performed with many artists throughout his career, he currently performs with The Westcoast Soulstars

Teaching Experience

Jason is primarily based here at YMS but has also taught at Sir Rodger Manwood's School and Canterbury Christ Church University.

Contact

jmclluskey@yourmusicschool.co.uk

