

Nick Bosworth

Piano Tutor

Instruments

Piano and Keyboard

Biography

Nick was brought up in Herne Bay and went to the Geoffrey Chaucer School in Canterbury. Here he was an active member of the music department where he studied piano and was a member of the school senior and Madrigal choir, later becoming their accompanist. After leaving school he joined local performing arts societies, later becoming Musical Director for their shows. After one of these shows, his band line up formed the main part of local soul band Rubber Biscuit. After working on this project for 18 months, Nick was offered the opportunity to work on cruise ships as the resident band. Since 1994, Nick has worked with YMS. He still gigs regularly for private, Masonic and Golf Club Functions. Nick has been married to his wife Tracy since 1997 and they have a daughter called Mollie.

Interests and Hobbies

When Nick isn't teaching, he enjoys running and travelling.

Something you won't know

Nick has played Teletubbies on the organ at St Pauls Cathedral in London.

Professional Performance Work

Nick has performed for Butlins and Haven holiday parks. He has also performed on cruise ships with Eurolink, Sally Line Ferries and P&O Cruises

Teaching Experience

As well as teaching here at YMS, Nick teaches at St Stevens Junior School, Herne Bay High School and The Canterbury Academy.

Contact

nbosworth@yourmusicschool.co.uk

